DAD: Johnny, please sit down your Mom and I have something to tell you.

SON: Yeah sure dad, what is it?

MOM: I know you chose your course alone and we against nothing to that, but look around you only few have become successful with that profession.

SON: What do you mean mom?

I am interested to learn not only about media but the other forms or functions of communication, and I am very proud of this.

DAD : Look son, we want nothing but a good future, a good job for you someday. A course that won't give you a hard time to look for a job vacancy, something that is known or in-demand today. Will you consider shifting another course, like Accountancy? Every big or even small firms or businesses needed an accountant, what about that?

SON: I understand dad, Thank you for that. But my plans are all set. The reason why I chose this course is not only to be come a broadcaster, I want to have my own business that is related to my chosen course, I want to run an advertising company after my master's degree. Maybe after my graduation in college I will work in the media or any of the advertising company to gain experience but working in this field is not really my target or for a life time work. Look, every product of today's generation runs under advertisement, they all needed a profession that can help their business known in the public, and I am pretty sure that my qualities as a media person can help these firms achieved their goals, like for example in the advertisements, do you know that each of this company pays thousand or even million for just a 30 seconder advertisement? How it sound like? Is it not a good job? I know it would be hard for me at the start but all of these successful businessmen undergone this difficulties and I am willing to follow their steps if it can help me achieved my dreams in life. And of course you both are part of this. I hope you wont force me to stop what I love to do or to shift in other course, because for sure it would be very difficult for me...

FRIEND 1: Sir, Ma'am, sorry to intrude I know this conversation is only for the family but I have something to tell you, Johnny is very good at school, and he has the potential to become successful in the field of advertising and He's very well known with his visual communications' skills.

FRIEND 2: Yes, that's true sir ma'am, He's right sir, we have seen his work and we are very impress with it.

DAD: Alright, that was just a suggestion son, whatever you like we will always here for you to support. We just thought that you still have no plans for your future. And I am very proud of you to hear all these plans of yours.

MOM: Hmmm,, my little son have truly gown.. indeed your dad and I are just a proud parents.....

SON: Thanks Dad, Thanks Mom -----END-----
